

Conference on New York State History 2010

Exhibitors List

Adirondack Museum

Explore the exhibits, watch a craftsman at work, or take part in one of the lively family programs scheduled throughout the summer. The Adirondack Museum plans a full schedule of exhibits, special events, lectures, demonstrations, field trips, and activities to delight and engage people of all ages. To learn more about all that the museum has to offer, please visit www.adkmuseum.org.

Representatives: Kate Moore & Susan Dineen

PO Box 99
Blue Mountain Lake, NY 12812

Phone: (518) 352-7311
Fax: (518) 352-7653
Email: info@adirondackmuseum.org
Website: www.adkmuseum.org

aGatherin'

Diane DeBlois and Robert Dalton Harris of aGatherin' have been, for over 30 years, full-time professional rare book dealers, specializing in ephemera and historic documents. They appraise, buy and sell, research and write about, evidence of all aspects of American life but specialize in transportation and communication - including tourism.

Representatives:
Diane DeBlois
Robert Dalton Harris

PO Box 477
West Sand Lake, NY 12196

Phone: (518) 674-2979
Email: agatherin@yahoo.com

Cornell University Press

Cornell University Press was established in 1869 and now publishes nearly 125 books annually, in fields ranging from aesthetics to zoology, from classics to contemporary politics. Recognized as one of the most distinguished in the country, all books that carry its imprints have been approved by a Board of Editors, which consists of members of the Cornell University faculty.

Representative:
Michael McGandy

512 E. State St.
Sage House
Ithaca, NY 14850

Phone: (607) 277-2338
Fax: (607) 277-2397
Website: www.cornellpress.cornell.edu

Fordham University Press

Fordham University Press, a member the Association of American University Presses (AAUP) since 1938, was established in 1907 not only to represent and uphold the values and traditions of the University itself, but also to further those values and traditions through the dissemination of scholarly research and ideas.

The press publishes primarily in the humanities and the social sciences, with an emphasis on the fields of anthropology, philosophy, theology, history, classics, communications, economics, sociology, business, political science, and law, as well as literature and the fine arts. Additionally, the press publishes books focusing on the metropolitan New York region and books of interest to the general public.

Representative: Fredric Nachbaur

2546 Belmont Ave
Bronx, NY 10458

Phone: (718) 817-4791
Fax: (718) 817-4785
Website: www.fordhampress.com

Conference on New York State History 2010

Exhibitors List

The History Press

The History Press brings a new way of thinking to history publishing—preserving and enriching community by empowering history enthusiasts to write local stories, for local audiences, as only a local can.

Infused with local color, titles published by The History Press showcase a community's character through story and picture. While useful as resources for research and preservation, we see our books as touchstones for community identity, and for that reason, we are committed to validating community histories that national houses and university presses too often have ignored. Our books are highly readable, often brief and aimed at a general readership.

Representative: Dani McGrath

11 Donzla Road
Essex, CT 06426

Phone: (843) 725-9614
Email: dani.mcgrath@historypress.net
Website: www.historypress.net

Hudson River Valley Institute

The Hudson River Valley Institute at Marist College is the academic arm of the Hudson River Valley National Heritage Area. Its mission is to study and to promote the Hudson River Valley and to provide educational resources for heritage tourists, scholars, elementary school educators, environmental organizations, the business community, and the general public. Its many projects include the publication of the Hudson River Valley Review and the management of a dynamic digital library and leading regional portal site.

The Digital Library contains a collection of heritage sites, documents, organizations, lesson plans, and related links to guide you through the Hudson River Valley. Its content and portals are designed to draw people--electronically and physically--from around the world to the Hudson River Valley to experience its scenic, cultural, economic, and historical resources.

Representative: Chris Pryslopski

3399 North Road
Poughkeepsie, NY 12601-1387

Phone: (845) 575-3052
Fax: (845) 575-3176
Email: hrvi@marist.edu
Website: www.hudsonrivervalley.org

John Brown Lives!

John Brown Lives! (JBL!) is a freedom education project founded in 1999 to promote justice and human rights through the exploration of events rooted in Adirondack history. JBL! Employs the arts and humanities to recover, examine, and celebrate overlooked chapters of the region's "freedom history" and their relevance today.

Representative: Martha Swan

PO Box 357
7176 Route 9N
Westport, NY 12933

Phone: (518) 962-4758
Email: johnbrownlives@westelcom.com

Museumwise

(formerly Upstate History Alliance)

As of April 2010, Upstate History Alliance is Museumwise! Established in 1971, we are a non-profit service organization which provides support, advice and training to historical societies, museums, historians, archivists, and other heritage organizations in New York State.

Representatives:
Stephanie Lehner
Catherine Gilbert

11 Ford Avenue
Oneonta, NY 13820

Phone: (800) 895-1648
Email: info@museumwise.org

Conference on New York State History 2010

Exhibitors List

National Abolition Hall of Fame and Museum at the Gerrit Smith Estate National Historic Landmark

The Gerrit Smith Estate National Historic Landmark is a site on the Heritage NY UGRR Trail and the National Park Service Network to Freedom. The National Abolition Hall of Fame and Museum honors abolitionists and their legacies. Underground Railroad exhibitions were installed in five Peterboro locations in May 2010.

Representative:
Norman Dann

4345 Peterboro Road
Peterboro NY 13134-0169

Phone: (315) 684-3262
Website: www.abolitionhof.org
www.sca-peterboro.org

National Book Auctions

National Book Auctions is a national public auction service specializing in books, art and ephemera (stamps, coins & currency, posters, etc.). We offer transportation service for large inventories and work with consigners throughout the U.S. and Canada. Our service capitalizes upon the marketing strengths of Internet-based marketing and on-line bidding, creating a truly global pool of bidding activity for items.

Representative: David Hall

1429 Danby Road/Route 96
Ithaca, NY 14850

Phone: (607) 269-0101
Email: mail@nationalbookauctions.com
Website: www.nationalbookauctions.com

New York State Archives Partnership Trust

The Archives Partnership Trust was founded in 1992 to build an endowment and provide project support to enhance humanities programs, increase access to these outstanding treasures, and continue the preservation of New York's historical records.

Since its founding, the Partnership Trust, a 501(c)(3) non-profit organization, has supported exceptional projects and programs. These include the Research Residency Program, the Student Research Awards Program, history conferences, special exhibitions, public education programs, book signings and lectures, publications, teacher training institutes, preservation projects, an Internet marketing and web-site redesign, a Membership Program and a Corporate Partners Program.

Representative:
Robert Bullock

Purple Mountain Press LTD

Representative: Wray Rominger

PO Box 309
Fleischmanns, NY 12430

Phone: (845) 254-4062
Email: purple@catskill.net
Website: www.catskill.net/purple

Conference on New York State History 2010

Exhibitors List

The Scholar's Choice

The Scholar's Choice is a combined exhibit company which represents university and scholarly publishers. We exhibit at over 150 conferences a year, bringing the latest in scholarship from publishers who choose not to exhibit on their own.

Representative:
Nancy Howe

25 Franklin St., #1260
Rochester, NY 14604

Phone: (585) 262-2048
Fax: (585) 262-2228
Email: information@scholarschoice.com
Website: www.scholarschoice.com

Syracuse University Press

Syracuse University Press continues a sixty-five-year tradition of serving scholars and scholarship, promoting the understanding of history, literature, science, societal problems, art, & culture, and publishing books that make a difference.

Through the publication of significant and groundbreaking books, the Press reflects the values of Syracuse University and its vision of discovery and learning.

Representative: Mona Hamlin
SU Press Marketing
mhamlin@syr.edu

For Book Orders:
1-800-848-6224
www.syracuseuniversitypress.edu

The Troy Book Makers is a full-service book printer that has helped over 300 authors and organizations self-publish professionally and affordably. Our knowledgeable staff can help you design a book from cover to cover, get an ISBN and barcode, and then print as few as 10 copies at a time. Visit www.thetroybookmakers.com to find out more.

Representative:
Susan Petrie

282 A River Street
Troy, NY 12180

Phone: (518) 689-1083
Email: susan@thetroybookmakers.com
Website: www.thetroybookmakers.com

The Troy Bookmakers